

Redbridge Adult Social Services Public Consultation

18 January - 20 April 2007

Proposal to Change the Eligibility Criteria for Adult Social Services

In order to meet the growing demand for services and the need to stay within the budget, Redbridge Adult Social Services is suggesting a change in the Eligibility Criteria (the 'rules' which are used to decide who receives a service).

The Council would like to hear your views about the proposals made, and are encouraging local people to come along to one of the public consultation meetings below to tell us what you think.

Central Library, Ilford	Monday 29 January 2007	10.30am - 12 noon
Fulwell Cross Library, High Street, Barkingside	Friday 2 February 2007	1.30pm - 3.00pm
Wanstead Library, Spratt Hall Road, Wanstead	Tuesday 6 February 2007	7.00pm - 8.30pm
Central Library, Ilford	Wednesday 7 February 2007	6.30pm - 8.00pm

Places are limited due to the number of people that each venue can hold, so please call our helpline on 020 8708 5011 to book a place. Registration will open 30 minutes before each session; workshops will start promptly at the stated times. Please let us know if you need a signer, interpreter etc.

Helpline opening times:

Monday to Friday, 7.30am - 4.00pm

Available until 7.00pm on Thursdays

Outside of these hours an answer machine will take messages for a call back.

For a copy of the consultation document - please call the helpline on 020 8708 5011 or email: socialservices.consult@redbridge.gov.uk

If you are unable to come along to any of the meetings, you can still join in. Just call the helpline and ask for a questionnaire or simply complete it online. Website: www.redbridge.gov.uk/caring/consult.cfm

